

WILLIAMS-TURNER.

There is Great Interest in the Outcome Tomorrow.

Quite a number of Salt Lake men will be at the race to see the outcome of the fight between the two champions.

Other Notes.

The Williams-Turner fight which takes place at the Salt Lake track tomorrow is eagerly anticipated by Salt Lake men, many of whom have traveled to the city to see the fight.

Major Murphy will attend Williams, and Earl Williams, his manager, is confident the outcome will be in Williams' favor.

Lyons-Thompson.

Major Lyons has discovered the application of Lyons and Thompson to be allowed to give a sparring contest in this city, as the rule must be given somewhere else—either at Park City or Ogden.

There will be a game of ball between the Ogden and Salt Lake teams today at the National ball park.

The two teams now stand a tie and today's game will be an exciting contest. The Salt Lake team will have a strong team in the field and will be expected to win out of the Ogden team.

Tony Barker had a great day at Ogden the other day making two home runs and a three bagger in one game. Tony is all right. Hammond, a late addition to the home team, is a hard hitter and will try to raise the ball over the fence when he comes to bat.

The following will be the positions of both sides:

Salt Lake	Ogden
Minor.	Shortstop.
First base.	First base.
Second base.	Second base.
Third base.	Third base.
Catcher.	Catcher.
Pitcher.	Pitcher.
Outfield.	Outfield.
Left field.	Left field.
Hammond.	Hammond.

It is now the proper caper to say: "Snacks received the Ottoman safety without the least delay, and the square foot of cutlery," says Tom Eddowes.

It is seldom you see two good ball players in the same game. The two Whites (Jim and Will), the two O'Rourke's (Jim and Jack), and the two O'Leary's (Jack and John) are about the only instances of this kind. Tom Mullane thinks his younger brother will make a great pitcher. He has brought him to Cincinnati from Erie, Pa., and is coaching him for a pitcher. Young Mullane is sixteen years old and is left-handed.

TRACK AND PADDOCK.

Astell stands close sixteen hands and weighs about 1,500 pounds.

Thistle, a five-year-old brother to Gold Leaf, worked three miles one day last week in 2:15, 2:15, 2:15.

The quarters of the new team will be at the quarters of the old team at the Kirkwood (De) down hill race 3:45, 3:45, 3:45.

Some day Nancy Hanks will beat 2:05, so it is not too late to wait and see. Look at their watches and then compare them," says John Spier.

Helle Vane stepped a half in 1:05 at Terre Haute last week. She can trot fast enough to make the air whistle as she sails by, and was a good boy trotter.

C. J. Hamlin says the filly Fantasy, by Chimes, out of Honora, by Almoner, 2:15, will come near breaking the record for a mare.

The runner which accompanied Nancy Hanks when she trotted in 2:15, at Belmont course, was brought from the west by Adam Foreman, Jr. After the race he was named Able Lincoln.

That speedy colt, Whittier, four years old, by Ponce, dam Irene, by Lexington, is reported to have broken down at St. Louis, last week, with a severe injury to his hind legs.

Scupper Garrison rode the race of his life at Madison at Monmouth, beating the Strathmore a much superior horse, by a nose, despite Major Covington's riding. The thousands of surprised spectators cheered the Scupper for ten minutes.

Trotting men are talking of Nancy Hanks' unsuccessful attempt to lower the record of 2:05, at Belmont park. The best she could do was 2:15, although her previous record was 2:15. Doubtless she will be able to do better.

C. W. Williams has announced that he would appear on the Mason City, Ia., track, in the September races to lower the two-mile record. Secretary Stewart is arranging to secure a string of good horses for the meeting, and there is every reason to believe that the racing will be all that can be desired.

Delmar, with a record of 2:15, and St. Vincent, 2:15, are in training at Taylor's park, Freeport, Ill. The first week in August will see the great race, the Delmar, against Allen, for a purse of $10,000, sixty per cent to the winner and forty per cent to the loser. It will be the first race since the season of the great stallions.

Last year's sensational but knock-kneed pacer, Frank Oxman, comes out this season as a much-improved horse, and the chances are that he will be a world beater. At Peru, Ind., he opened the campaign in a three-mile race, beating the three heats in 2:15, 2:15, and 2:15. His previous record was 2:15.

The fastest trotter in a race on any track this year was reeled off by the bay mare, Sally O'Neil, at the Belmont course. The time hung out was 2:15, and some of the watchers made it 2:15. The brown gelding, Conway, which was successful in all his races on the eastern circuit, drove Sally O'Neil out and made the pace.

Marcus Daly, with both the Suburban and the Reclamation to his credit, heads the list of winners in the recent Suburban meet, with a record of 2:15. Foxhall Kewee comes next with 2:20, for over $30,000 of which his Alice Bruce colt is responsible.

McCoy's stable, carried $30,000, and his day's work in the Suburban, in 2:20, August Belmont, with Lady Violet and Corduroy, won $5,000, and W. R. Jones, with Charade, won $4,000 to his bank account.

PRIZE KING DOINGS.

Sullivan lost fourteen pounds the first three days he started to train.

The Pacific Athletic club of San Francisco wants to make Joe Goldard and Joe Chynoweth.

Johnnie Griffin and Jimmy Lynch will box for a $2,000 purse before the Coney Island club in September.

Jimmy Carney, the ex-English light-weight champion, is at last to be reckoned as a boxer. He is out of the ring for $250.

Roddy Gallagher's defeat by young Mitchell changed his desire to continue a fighting pugilist, and he is now content to use his life as a boxing instructor at Denver.

Butt Murphy, the Australian, wants to fight George Dixon, at 118 pounds, either in California or New York, for $2,300, in the fall of 1892—and the featherweight championship.

Mickey Dooley, the Australian light-heavyweight, said to be on his way to this country, was born in Ireland, and is seven years old.

The match between the two clever light-weights, Billy Dacey and Walter Campbell, seems to have taken place through Dacey's fault. He lost his money, but Campbell never came to him.

Tom Kelly the Hoboken pugilist who stopped Paddy Smith in one round at the Manhattan club, last winter, was he will fight any 140-pound man in the world—Needham, O'Connor, Kerrigan, or any of them.

"Gipsy" Glasgow, of England, knocked out Jack O'Neil, of Portland, Ore., in seven rounds on an island near Burlington, Ia. Five-ounce gloves were used and the rules of Queensbury rules governed. The fight was for $10,000.

"Cydonia Jackson and Billy Pitts fought to a finish at Fargo, N. D., for a purse of $200 and the light-weight championship of North Dakota. Jackson won in the seventh round, and was a bloody one.

Billy Plimmer, the English bantam weight who whipped Tommy Kelly, the American champion, believes that he can lower the record of George Dixon, provided the colored man comes to his weight.

The other day Plimmer sent a challenge to Captain Cooke, offering to fight Dixon at 112 pounds, weight at ring side, in three weeks, for $2,000 and a purse.

There seems little likelihood of Slavin and Cooke meeting again in England. No club is disposed to put up a purse of $10,000 to arrive at what they consider a foregone conclusion.

Slavin is in English minds that Jackson is Slavin's superior at all points of the fistic game, and Slavin will have some difficulty in finding backing unless his Australian manager determine to give the big white man one more chance.

DON'T FOR HUSBANDS.

Don't reproach her for her word or speak sharply to her before your children or friends.

Don't sneer at her opinions. Her judgment will always be better than yours on many subjects.

Don't ask her what she does for her money, or how she gets it.

Don't marry a woman who hasn't common sense enough to spend a dollar wisely without your interference in the matter.

Don't hang around the kitchen offering advice and suggestions. You have more business in your office or counting room.

Don't tell her how she ought to dress her children or herself, and don't forget to tell her when you see her looking prettier than usual.

Don't talk about how well off you might have been if you had never married her and had three, or four, or five, or six children. The wives and children of husbands who do this are just as unfortunate as you are.

Don't reserve all your sullen, peevish looks for your own friends. Distribute some of them to your enemies, and you will find that you are just as miserable as you are.

what they think of you for such unchristianlike conduct.

Don't smoke forty cents worth of cigars a day and eat out of a silver-plated tin and then how "we simply must economize."

Don't try to make your wife feel that she ought to get down on her knees and grovel in grateful humiliation before you every time you get her a new dress or a new hat.

Don't be so vain, very vain of your praises of your wife. Be just as modestly extravagant in this direction as you choose. No danger of bankrupting your stock of affection or love, either by such a course.

Don't compare her to other women to her disadvantage, and don't speak of her failings to any other person on earth. Men who talk about their wives deserve and receive the contempt of all respectable persons.

Don't swear at her or look at her as if you would gladly slay her when she tells you in the most humble way that you have helped to empty it and it is your duty to fill it cheerfully.

Don't forget certain little promises and solemn vows you made to her on your knees in the days of your courtship and on the marriage altar. They are registered in heaven, and you may some day be reminded of them to your infinite sorrow.

First race ever ridden by ladies in this city will take place tomorrow at the West Side track.

A String of Items About Things Not Much Known.

Little Statistical Statements to Put Away in Your Scrap-Book for Reference.

There are 300,000 commercial travelers in the United States.

A Russian can spend infancy for a long time, as he does not come of age till he is 30 years old.

Two little islands, Zanzibar and Pemba, furnish four-fifths of the cloves consumed by the world.

In 20 years $500 worth of pennies would only be worth $200, so quick does copper money wear away.

It is estimated that fully two-thirds of the whole amount of public money held by the London banks does not bear interest.

Denmark has a system of benevolence by which the poorest of 60 years of age are insured against want. It is on the presumption that they have always paid taxes.

A pneumatic tube connects Paris with Berlin. It is used for postal purposes, and makes it possible for a letter mailed in Paris to be delivered in Berlin in thirty-five minutes.

The largest whale ever captured was run down by the "Mormon" (Conn. whaler) in the Cumberland inlet, and yielded 100 barrels of oil and 230 pounds of whalebone.

Russia has become infected with the vice of her drinking, and the pernicious habit has spread so rapidly that the Government has judged it necessary to prohibit the free sale of wine and beer in all its compounds, and to schedule it among the poisons.

With the opening up of the world by railway and steamship communication the demand for diamonds has increased enormously. The world now purchases about $25,000,000 worth per annum. Twenty years ago the amount was about half a million sterling.

The first living skeleton was found by Dr. Seaworth in 1820. It was a very old man, and would have been well shaped had there been any flesh on his body; as it was, every bone could be distinctly seen. His arms were compared to the arms of a skeleton, and his abdomen was found to be a mere bag of bones.

He made a fortune exhibiting himself, retired to his native village, and died suddenly at the age of 37.

The name of "Porcelain Tower" was applied to China's unique structure on account of the fact that the whole of the outside work was covered with porcelain slabs of various sizes and colors, but principally white, red, yellow and green. At every point of its structure the projecting roof of the gallery was covered with green tiles, each corner being provided with a bell, varying in weight from 300 to 1,000 pounds.

Eighty years ago boys in the United States under 18 years of age worked in factories, in instances fourteen hours a day; but a week was a not uncommon rate of wages for women and children.

Some women could earn a day at a trade which must give six months of unpaid service to learn; with calico at 6c a yard, a woman's earnings for ten weeks would only suffice to buy the material for a dress.

M. Morquet, a friar of the Florentine Order in Paris, has constructed a perfect watch only a quarter of an inch in diameter. Besides the two hands, which indicate the time, it has a third which marks the seconds, besides a microscopic dial which indicates the days, weeks, months and years. It contains an alarm, and can be wound up in the palm of the hand.

The word "reel" has a queer origin. Many centuries ago the first monarch of the province of Lincoln gave to one of his chiefs, as a reward for distinguished services, his sword and all the land within the limit of which a cock crowing at a certain hour could be heard. From this circumstance the little town which grew up in the center of this territory was called Calico, or the cock crowing. Afterwards it was called Calico, and from this place the first cotton reels were imported into England, bearing the name of Calico.

WHAT HER GRUNDY SAYS.

That there is far more speculation nowadays than legitimate business.

That those who are at their best when they are laying to the gospel.

That there will be enough churches open all summer for those who want to worship.

That the percentage of dishonest men is increased every season when the races begin.

That big wages, little labor and fine costumes is the motto of the modern servant girl.

That of all professional men, physicians render gratuitous services the most.

DELICIOUS OLD BEVERAGES.

The delectable old to which they are warm at the Occidental are delicious, pure and superior. First-class wines, liquors, beers, ales and cigars. Family supplies a specialty.
